

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT:
Erica Streisfeld
E-mail: ericas@pa-news.org
Phone: (717) 703-3071

York Daily Record/Sunday News* chosen for Public Service Award

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 14, 2005 — The York Daily Record/Sunday News is the recipient of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Association (PNA) Foundation's annual Public Service Award.

The Public Service Award recognizes a newspaper that has made a significant contribution to the betterment of its community through public service leadership.

The entry submitted by York Daily Record/Sunday News was entitled "History Team," offering a series of projects to help readers and educators better understand and teach York County history.

According to the contest judge, the paper sent in an impressive submission that was "a real community project driven by the York Daily Record/ Sunday News staff." Their entry displayed time commitment, resources and talent.

The Public Service Award will be presented on Nov. 4, 2005, at the PNA Annual Convention at The Yorktowne Hotel, York.

The PNA Foundation, established in 1967, is a tax-exempt, nonprofit corporation under IRS code 501(c)(3). Its mission is to improve newspapers through education and training programs and to develop a better understanding in the public and private sectors about the role of newspapers.